Website : <https://www.iimcal.ac.in/>

IIM Calcutta is one of the Top 3 business Schools in India.

The International Relations Office provides an orientation programme for all International students on the start date of the term. It's compulsory for all students.

One more important point is the climate. Be aware that while the months of June – September are Monsoon season, usually hot, humid, and rainy, temperatures during the night can go down as low as 10 degrees during November until February nights. Since you will find cheap clothes all around the city that should not be a problem, but some people like to arrive a little more prepared.

Located in Joka.

Cours

IIM Calcutta offers a wide range of courses for aspiring business graduates. The increasing number of industry related-courses and those specialized modules which attempt to inculcate an entrepreneurial spirit strongly reflects the commitment of IIMC to constantly reinvent itself. What sets IIMC apart from most of the top business schools in India is its distinctive pedagogy. The institute follows a teaching methodology that is a perfect mélange of the case teaching and lecture methods. While the former teaches students through practical experiences, the latter strengthens their theoretical fundamentals. Debates, interactive discussions, and presentations are some of the distinctive aspects of our pedagogy.

Classes are conducted through a mix of lectures, case analysis, interactive projects, discussions and presentations. Extensive in-class participation is critical. Students must prepare for each case study before class.

Spécificités académiques

Attendance is compulsory for all courses. Students should sign the attendance sheet for each class.

Students are expected to attend all the classes of a given course. However, to accommodate short-term contingencies, a minimum of 75% attendance for classes held is stipulated for a 3-creditcourse.
